

Panel100:

Learning of/with children: anthropologist at "school" (Commission on Children, Youth and Childhood)

Location: 104, International Conference Hall, Makuhari Messe, Mihama Ward, Chiba, Japan

Date and Time: Session 1: 08:30-10:00 / Session 2: 13:30-15:00, 15 May, 2014

Convenors:

Kae Amo (EHESS)

Jean Paul Filiod (Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1)

Takao Shimizu (Research Institute for Humanity and Nature)

Chair: Kae Amo (EHESS) and Elodie Razy (University of Liege)

Discussant: Nobutaka Kamei (Aichi Prefectural University)

Session 1 [08:30-10:00]: Chair: Kae Amo (EHESS)

1) Introduction: Nobutaka Kamei (Aichi Prefectural University)

2) What do we know about small children when they work with an artist? A collaborative research in pre-schools
(Lyon, France)

Jean Paul Filiod (Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1)

3) Producing memory of migration: history of a participatory action research with children and young people
(Paris, France)

Elodie Razy (University of Liege)

Questions and comments for the Session 1: Takao Shimizu (Research Institute for Humanity and Nature)

Session 2 [13:30-15:00]: Chair: Elodie Razy

4) Discovering unexpected heritages with children: collaborative ethnography, theoretical and methodological learning from Tenochtitlan (Mexico)

Charles-Édouard de Suremain (IRD (Institut de Recherche pour le Développement))

5) Children and anthropologists in "Tarbiya": spiritual training in Muslim brotherhoods and its social interpretation (Senegal)

Kae Amo (EHESS)

6) Is the problem of "street-children" is a "social problem" or a phenomenon on the urban space? Looking through anthropologist on NGOs (Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso)

Takao Shimizu (Research Institute for Humanity and Nature)

Questions and comments for the Session 2: Jean Paul Filiod (Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1)

General comments for the session 1 and 2: Nobutaka Kamei (Aichi Prefectural University)

Closing address: Takao Shimizu (Research Institute for Humanity and Nature)

(Unfortunately canceled) Learning from babies: the productivity of observation in the ethnographic characterization of way of life

Carolina Remorini (University of La Plata-CONICET)

(Unfortunately canceled) Children as ethnographers: an experience in the Bolivia-Argentina border

Natalia Zlachevsky